The Customs Service continues to have problems that diminish its ability to reasonably ensure that sen-sitive data maintained in automated systems are adequately protected from unau- thorized access and modification. In September 1996, we reported that during the previous 2 years, serious informa- tion security control weaknesses had been reported for 10 of the 15 largest federal agencies. We have made dozens of recommendations for improvement to individual agencies, and they have started acting on many of them. In addition, we have recommended ways for the Office of Management and Budg-et (OMB) to enhance its ability to oversee and improve federal information security programs. We suggested steps that OMB can take to (1) effectively use opportunities to aid in overseeing and improving agency information security programs - such as annual financial audits and the newly created Chief Information Officers Council, and (2) increase the expertise of its staff in information...
