Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Who Wanted the European War? This study was published in the Revue des Deux Mondes of Dec. 15, 1914, under the title Le Conflit europeen d apres les documents diplomatiques , and was republished in a literal translation, arranged by the publishers, in the collection of Problemi italiani under the new title Le origini della guerra presente . The study now printed has been supervised by the author himself and is perhaps something more than a new translation, as the French text has been revised or retouched in many points. In his revision the author has taken account of the Austro-Hungarian Red Book, which was not published when the study appeared in the Revue des Deux Mondes. As now printed the pamphlet records the diplomatic action of Europe from July 23 to August 1, 1914, which gave rise to the European war, so far as it can be gathered from all the collections of diplomatic documents up till now put at the disposal of the public. These are: The White Book published by the German Government (German White B.). The three White Books published by the British Government - Miscellaneous, No. 6 (1914) [Cd. 7467]; Miscellaneous, No. 8 (1914) [Cd. 7445]; Miscellaneous, No. 10 (1914) [Cd. 7596] - collected by the Government in one volume: Great Britain and the European Crisis (quoted as W. B.). About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
