WHERE TO FIND me Circumstances in life often produce many obstacles that are seemingly impossible to overcome. These challenges manifest within us, creating a self-constructed barrier where our focus of hope has become diminished within a world of abandonment. Here, our will power to succeed is no longer fostered by any desire of our own. We often discover simple satisfactions in daily routines of struggle, unhappiness, worry, and ideas of self-worthlessness. WHERE TO FIND me (BLACK and WHITE) is a concentration of ideas and abstractions that may aid us in the realization of those meaningful things, which once consumed us with true happiness. Each opportunity to change the path from those unwanted obstacles is characterized by each day we awake. So, let us rise to a new morning and take advantage of all things that may grant us an exhilarated life. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
