It is not to be presumed, in such a case, that the party, dealing with such public officer, means to rely upon his individual responsibility. 40 995. Ratification.--The government or municipal corporation, like a private principal, may ratify its agent s unauthorized act of contracting, thus rendering it good. It must be done by the proper power, with the formalities required by the particular case, -- matters needing no special explanation.41 The Doctrine of this Chapter restated. 996. The government, whether of the United States or of a State, has within its sphere the same power of contract as an individual within his sphere. And, like an individual, it can enforce the contract in its courts. It is bound the same on its part, and the presumption is the same that it will perform; but, except with its consent, it cannot be sued. Since it can act only through its officers and other agents, its contracts must be...
