

Signs of Life: Jessies Game, Book One

By Saul Tanpepper

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 414 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 1.0in. Welcome to GAMELAND. Everyone's dying to get in. Someone's hacking Jessie Daniels's brain implant. But the prime suspect, a former gamer friend, is supposed to be dead. Dead and reanimated. Jessie thinks he may still be alive. What if she's wrong? Still recovering from a reckless break-in to the zombie-populated live-action virtual reality arcade where it all began, Jessie struggles to hold onto her health. . . and her sanity. Her best friend now roams the island as one of the soulless, people close to Jessie are disappearing, and her own husband is acting suspiciously. Network lapses are occurring with greater frequency. It's only a matter of time before Arc Enterprises, the company meant to protect them, becomes their greatest threat. But Arc is determined to launch a new twist on their most popular product, The Game, and they'll let nothing - and no one - stand in the way. So when the outbreak sirens begin to sound, Jessie must make a crucial decision-- cower in the relative safety of her home or return to the one place she most fears....
