The Lilliput Press Ltd, Ireland, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 215 x 136 mm. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. He said hi name was Monsieur Jean-Louis Ovide; my name, I told him, was Ulick MacKetrick, and with this mutually incomprehensible introduction we fell into step, as we were both headed in roughly the same direction. The Irish musician and French free-thinking eccentric journey through Normandy in the summertime, overcoming language barriers to form a unique friendship, the one deploying words, the other song. Walking the country lanes together, playing music for pleasure and for food, they pick up odd jobs and sleep out of doors. As they travel between villages other characters come into play: Felix, a young, sports-car driving socialist who trades Cuban cigars for potatoes; Sir Peter and Lady Em, wealthy hosts who share their love of music. In the company of Ulick and Mo soor a French summer comes alive with traditional airs and renewed understandings. The timeless pastoral setting of this beautifully crafted novella echoes the works of Goldsmith and Maupassant, forming a unique interlude for the reader.
