Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This publication, Army Techniques Publication ATP 3-90.15 Site Exploitation July 2015, discusses how site exploitation is planned, resourced, and implemented, and how the resultant information or intelligence is disseminated to the lowest tactical level. Soldiers conduct site exploitation with political, military, economic, and social information, infrastructure, physical environment, or time sensitivity implications to the United States. Both hasty and deliberate site exploitation are considered throughout the operations process and are executed through the exercise of mission command. The term site exploitation has been redefined in this publication. (See chapter 1, paragraph 1-1.) This ATP uses the generic term brigade throughout the publication to refer to Army brigade combat teams and brigades in order to recognize that site exploitation is executed by all Army brigades, not just brigade combat teams. Both the terms materiel and material are used within this publication. The terms materiel and material are often confused, but they both have distinct definitions. Materiel includes, but is not limited to, information, documents, electronic data storage multimedia, weapons, personal property, and monies associated with the threat. Material refers...
