Wherever there are people there will be a literature. A literature is the record of human experience, and people have always been impelled to write down their impressions of life. They do so in diaries and letters, in pamphlets and books, and in essays, poems, plays, and fiction. In this respect American literature is like any other, though it displays many characteristics that are similar and many that are dissimilar to the literary tradition of other nations. American Literature has witnessed several trends and movements: Puritan/Colonial (1650--1750) Revolutionary/Age of Reason (1750--1800) Romanticism (1800--1860) American Renaissance/Transcendentalism (1840--1860) Realism (1855--1900) (Period of civil war and post-war period) The Moderns (1900--1950) Harlem Renaissance (parallel to Modernism) (1920s) Postmodernism (1950 to present) The present Volume concentrates on the American literature of 19th and 20th centuries and includes critical papers on authors widely prescribed in the Indian universities. As we are aware, the beauty of any literary work is that it leads to fresh interpretation every time when viewed from a different angle. The...
