Excerpt: . gnomonic poetry, such as the fabel, the proverb and the parable. Hebrew poetry is rythmic, but the verse is not based on meter or on rhyme. Its chief characteristic is parallelism, of which there are four kinds, the synonymous, the antithetic, the synthetic and the inverted. Song and Music were loved very much among Israel. The shepherd in the field, as well as the children in the gate or by the well filled the air with music, while both bridal processions and funeral trains were accompanied by joyous or plaintive notes. Yet the singing was very simple and often crude; it was chanting rather than singing. The temple-choir probably sang different parts, such as soprano, alto, tenor and bass. Moreover responsive and antiphonal singing gave it some variety. Usually the singing was accompanied by instrumental music. There were especially three sorts of instruments:...
